2018 Tricia Ford Money Award Nomination Form

The Fairfield PTA Council seeks nominations for the Tricia Ford Money Award. Introduced in 2016, this award is given to an individual who has demonstrated an exemplary passion and commitment to a single program or initiative that positively impacts Fairfield children and the community at large. It is named for Tricia Ford Money, an educator and PTA volunteer who was known for her boundless enthusiasm and dedication to educating others about the Mill River Wetlands through the River Lab program.

A nominee should meet the following criteria:

- ✓ Is an identifiable advocate of a single program or initiative that contributes to the betterment of the children in our public schools and the overall Fairfield community
- ✓ Has raised awareness of that program or initiative and made a positive difference through their actions to engage and educate others
